Yooj Chosen as Vendor Lease Partner for PlastiVac

Sep 07, 2009

Yooj Solutions, Inc. has been chosen to be the strategic lease funding partner for PlastiVac, Inc., a global provider of plastic thermoforming systems.

Glenn Spiller, president of Yooj, said, "To have the opportunity to work with Plastivac, a company that's a proven leader in their field, is very exciting. We are eager to support their sales efforts through effective leasing options for their clients."

Martin Eichenberger, president and CEO of PlastiVac, said, "We are committed to providing solutions to assist clients in acquiring our technology; partnering with Yooj Solutions enables us to make it easier for our clients to maintain purchasing ability, while helping them manage cash flow and budgetary constraints."

Yooj Solutions, Inc. is a provider of lease financing solutions. Its management brings experience, as former business owners and lessees, to enrich the vendor and business relationships they serve.
